Our tale takes place after Adol and his friend, Dogi, have completed a harrowing adventure in which they conquered an evil force and saved the land of Ys from doom.

As the pair continues to journey about the land of Ys, they come upon a town being visited by a gypsy caravan. While talking to the townspeople, the two friends hear about Felgana. Evidently, mysterious weather, bad crops, and rising prices have made it a bad place for merchants to do business.

Dogi was worried. His hometown, Redmont, was in the heart of Felgana. His uneasiness is heightened when he has his fortune told by a beautiful fortune-teller. The fortune-teller gazes into her crystal ball, but as Dogi's future is being revealed, the crystal ball explodes! The explosion leaves the fortune-teller unconscious. Something mysterious was happening!

Adol had a nagging premonition, "Let's go to Redmont, Dogi," he said. Thus, Adol begins a new adventure in the land of Ys...

This sword is light and easy to handle, however it lacks in power.

A meter longer than the Short Sword, this weapon is harder to wield.

Made of pure iron, it has tremendous destructive potential.

The Tool Store in Redmont will provide many of the items you will need for battle. However, the following is not a complete list of these weapons, as other items may be found during your adventure.
Catalog of Rings

Armor

- Leather Armor: This is lightweight armor, providing slightly more protection than regular clothing.
- Chain Mail: Constructed of iron, it is well worth the money.
- Plate Mail: Tough and heavy, this armor offers solid protection.

Shield

- Wood Shield: It's cheap and light, making it just a little better than using your hands to block.
- Small Shield: Made of a metal alloy, this shield makes for a moderate defense.
- Large Shield: Heavy and expensive, the iron of this shield will provide excellent defense.

Power Ring
- This ring doubles Adol's attack power.

Time Ring
- When worn, time slows to half its normal speed. Everything in the area is affected except for Adol.

Shield Ring
- Protection power is raised so that Adol's damage is reduced by half.
